Student Worksheet #2: 10 Upstander Steps

	:: Date:
10 UF	PSTANDER STEPS
1.	Don't spread mean rumors, hate, or propaganda.
2.	Don't laugh, joke, or make things worse.
3.	Help get the target out of the area.
4.	Support the person after the incident.
5.	Notice and remember details (see #6).
6.	Offer to go with them to tell an adult.
7.	Invite them to hang out at lunch/recess.
8.	Offer company the next time you're in the same area as the original incident.
9.	Tell them it wasn't their fault.
10	. For online incidents, encourage screenshots and report them to an adult.
-	rtant Skill 1 (What can I say to someone being aggressive if I feel safe
-	rtant Skill 1 (What can I say to someone being aggressive if I feel safe gh?) Example: "Hey, that's mean. Stop that!"
enou Impo	gh?) Example: "Hey, that's mean. Stop that!" rtant Skill 2 (After telling an adult, what can I say to myself if I am a target of dice or aggression?) Example: "They did a mean thing. There's nothing wrong

Based on the work of Stan Davis and Denise Koebcke.