

Student Worksheet #1: Moral Courage in Action – Irena Sendler

Questions

1. Who was Irena Sendler? What did she do during the Holocaust?
2. How did she save the children from the Warsaw Ghetto?
3. Why was this so dangerous? What could have happened to her?
4. What motivated her to take such risks?
5. How did she protect the children's identities and family names?
6. Why is her story important to remember?
7. What connections can you make to Janusz Korczak and his choices?
8. What do you think helped her keep going, even when she was arrested?
9. Can you think of someone today who shows this kind of quiet courage?
10. What would you do if you saw injustice? How could you support the person being targeted?